

The La Jolla High Tide is proud to present....

The La Jolla Senior Class of 2008

Recently, seven new wonders of the world were revealed. The Great Wall of China, The Christ the Redeemer Statue, Petra, The Colosseum, Machu Pichu, The Taj Maha, and Chichen Itza are cool but the class of 2008 is right up there with them. As a class we have had some fun times and high school has been truly unforgettable. As we continue on into the future it is certain that our class is going to do some wonderful things. This senior issue is dedicated to all of the seniors. We have all come so far.

We did it.
